- 2) Comment on the ambition level of the project.

- 3) Is the proposed project feasible for the applicant to undertake?

- 4) Assess the maturity of the project's design and development.

- 5) Is there any additional information that you think would be useful to the graduate awards committee in reaching a decision?

6) Answer one of the following:

- a. For applicants who have not yet completed their field paper, when do you expect the field paper will be completed?
- b. For applicants who have completed their field paper, when do you expect they will defend their prospectus?

To help the graduate awards committee assess the independence of the applicant's involvement in the project, please answer the following two questions:

7) To what extent was the proposed project independently derived by the applicant?

8) Please comment on whether or not the proposed project is likely to lead to a paper co-authored with a faculty collaborator. Note that such co-authorship is allowed, but it is important for the graduate awards committee to have this information.
